HAVDALAH AFTER: 9:04 PM

Parashat KORAH... In this week's parashah, Korah and some fellow Levites presented a challenge to Aaron's religious leadership. Others, perhaps emboldened by Korah's challenge, rebelled against Moses' leadership. In later Jewish tradition Korah's rebellion became known as a controversy "not pursued in the name of Heaven". Such controversies, the Sages tell us, are always doomed to failure. When a controversy erupts between parties with conflicting yet sincere and honest concerns, it has a better chance to advance the Torah mission.
