HAVDALAH AFTER: 5:06 PM

Parashat VAYIGASH... The story of Joseph's life reaches its climax with Judah's magnificent plea on behalf of Benjamin. Moved to tears, Joseph is convinced that his older brothers have truly repented of their former behavior - their hatred for him that led to his exile to Egypt, as well as their callous disregard for the feelings of Jacob their father. After many years of alienation and separation, Joseph is finally assured that the family dynamic has changed. His brothers are shocked and frightened when Joseph reveals his true identity; yet, his warmth and acceptance quickly win the brothers over and the family is reunited.

The sages of old did not conceive of Jewish prayer as incantation, but as 'service of the heart' and as a vehicle through which we are invited to speak our hearts before Hashem. Join us for the official launch of the new Siddur 'Alats Libbi, edited by Rabbi Dr. Isaac Sassoon & Rabbi Steve Golden.

One of the world's leading Torah scholars, Hakham Dr. Isaac Sassoon synthesizes rigorous traditional study with scrupulous academic and historical scholarship. A prolific writer for TheTorah.com, Hakham Sassoon is the author of several critically acclaimed books.

Hakham Sassoon's initial education was under the tutelage of his father - the renowned scholar Rabbi Solomon David Sassoon, Hakham Yosef Doury, and others. He studied at the prestigious Gateshead Yeshiva and various yeshivot in Israel. Hakham Sassoon received semikhah from the Chief Rabbinate of Israel, and holds a Ph.D. in Literature from the University of Lisbon.

Continuing his family's tradition of academic achievement, Hakham Sassoon has published on topics ranging from Scriptural commentary and history, to issues of current concern to the Jewish community.
