Parashat NITZAVIM-VAYELEKH...

Although the two Biblical portions, Nitzavim and Vayelekh are separate parshiyot, they are often combined. In Parashat Nitzavim, Moses concludes his final sermon to the children of Israel.
Once again he warns the people to remain faithful to the Covenant and to observe the Torah. In Parashat Vayelekh, Moses appoints Joshua as the new leader of Israel who will shepherd the Children of Israel into the land of Canaan.
