Parashat HA'AZINU... The great leader of Israel ends his ministry with a song that both praises G-d and warns the children of Israel.

Moses, who began his service to G-d as a shepherd without experience in diplomacy, now, at the end of his career, shines as a caring, profound and eloquent spiritual leader. Moses remains for all times the greatest prophet of Israel.

The Story Of YOM KIPPUR

יום כפור

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, is the most sacred of the Jewish holidays, the “Sabbath of Sabbaths.” On Yom Kippur 40 days of repentance that began with the first of Elul have passed. On Rosh Hashanah G-d has judged mankind and recorded their judgements in the Book of Life. But we are given a 10 day reprieve.

On Yom Kippur the Book of Life is closed and sealed. Those that have repented for their sins are granted a good and happy New Year. Since Yom Kippur is the day to ask forgiveness for promises broken to G-d, the days before are reserved for asking forgiveness from for broken promises between people, as G-d cannot forgive broken promises between people.

Yom Kippur is a day of “NOT” doing. There is no blowing of the Shofar and Jews may not eat or drink, as fasting is commanded in the Bible.

The Five Prohibitions of Yom Kippur:

1. Eating and drinking
2. Anointing with perfumes or lotions
3. Marital relations
4. Washing for pleasure
5. Wearing leather shoes

While on Yom Kippur we fast, the day before we eat.

On the eve of Yom Kippur the community joins at the synagogue. Men put on prayer shawls (not usually worn in the evenings). Then, as night descends, the cantor begins the “Kal Nidre”; it is repeated 3 times, each time in a louder voice. The Kal Nidre emphasizes the importance of keeping vows, as violating an oath is a grave sin.

An important part of the Yom Kippur service is the Vidui or confession. The Confessionals in the liturgy help to reflect on one’s misdeeds; confessing them verbally is an indispensable component of our repentance before G-d and asking Him for forgiveness. Because community and unity are an important part of Jewish Life, the confessions are said in the plural (We are guilty).

As Yom Kippur ends, the last service called Ne’ilah offers a final opportunity for repentance. It is the only service of the year during which the doors of the Heikhal/Ark (where the Torah scrolls are stored) remain open from beginning to end.

Yom Kippur concludes with the verse, said 7 times, “The L-rd is our G-d.” The Shofar is sounded once and the congregation proclaims - “Next Year in Jerusalem.”
