A Salute to Rabbi Arnold B. and Zipporah

Rabbi Arnold B. Marans' tireless efforts and indefatigable zeal on behalf of our noble institution in particular– and the Balkan Sephardic Community in general– have made him revered and beloved, and brought our Congregation well-deserved acclaim.

The 55th Annual Testimonial and reconsecration service, honoring Rabbi Arnold and Zipporah Marans, will be a celebration of the Sephardic Temple's history led by its founding spiritual leader.

At the same time, the 55th Testimonial and reconsecration service on Shabbath, June 16, 2018 will commemorate the blessing of our admired spiritual leader's many years of life.

Your generous participation in this year's testimonial journal will ensure that it becomes a glorious record attesting to the Temple's love and admiration for Rabbi Marans, Zipporah and their family.

Honorary Chairman of the Board

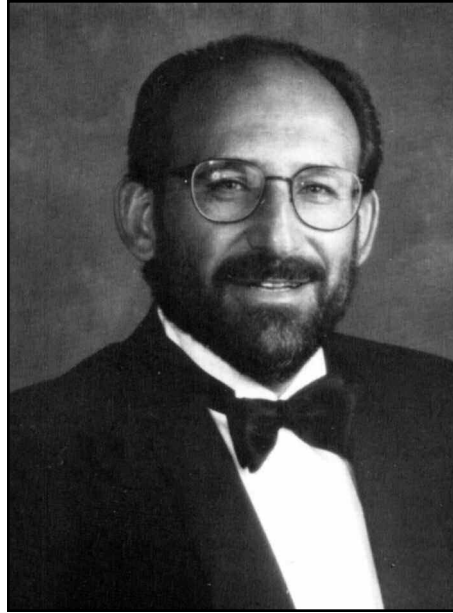

The Sephardic Temple wishes to record its profound thanks to the late Isaac H. Zacharia and to MaryAnn Zacharia for their extraordinary graciousness in providing the Temple with the opportunity to reconstruct and refurbish the two main entrances.

The weekday chapel entrance was rebuilt, enlarged and refurbished with new sculptured doors and the chapel foyer was refurbished, including chandeliers and carpeting. The main entrance was reconstructed by widening the driveway, eliminating the steps, building a large marquee over the main entrance and installing new sets of sculptured doors, which have magnificently enhanced the main entrance.

We would like to thank the late Mr. Joseph Camhi for undertaking the initiative of this grand project that added to the grandeur of the Sephardic Temple.

As is our custom every year, we choose honorees who have earned the admiration of our membership.

This year the Testimonial is conferred upon Rabbi and Zipporah Marans whose dedicated beliefs and efforts serve as the cornerstone of our Sephardic Temple. Their contributions to the Temple and to the overall community cannot be understated and are an inspiration.

The Sephardic Temple is very proud to have within its membership many members who display great devotion to the synagogue. As our leaders, Rabbi and Zipporah uphold the sanctity of our religion, and help instill our traditions.

I consider it an honor and a privilege as President of the Sephardic Temple to be part of this memorable day.

This Testimonial is an appropriate way of conveying our gratitude for Rabbi and Zipporah's valiant efforts on behalf of the Sephardic Temple.

A SHORT HISTORY OF THE SEPHARDIC TEMPLE

In the early 1950's a group of young Sephardim with the blessings of their elders organized a new congregation in the New Lots section of Brooklyn. This new congregation, called The United Sephardim of Brooklyn, accented a program of youth activities and services for young adults. It reorganized the religious school and utilized the existing facilities of the Williams Avenue synagogue and the Malta Street synagogue. The congregation flourished and achieved a singular reputation in the Sephardic community.

In the late 1950's the neighborhood began to change and Irving L. Rouso, who was a vice-president of the United Sephardim of Brooklyn was asked to head a committee to establish a new congregation in the Five Towns area. Under his leadership meetings were held in the homes of many prominent Sephardim who lived in the Five Towns and a strong nucleus of leaders undertook the creation of The Sephardic Temple. A large parcel of land was acquired on Branch Boulevard and our magnificent edifice was erected. The doors of the completed building were opened for the Pesach holidays of 1964.

On the following pages we have highlighted events and happenings to recall these past years. We hope that you will remember these moments and enjoy these memories.

THE TEMPLE

The lower right of the above picture shows a part of the huge 5000 gallon fuel tank what was buried below the slab. Due to the high water table of the area the tank is anchored to a 5 ton block of concrete.

The rough plumbing is complete. The building has five comfortable areas, a meat kitchen, a dairy kitchen and a custodian's apartment.

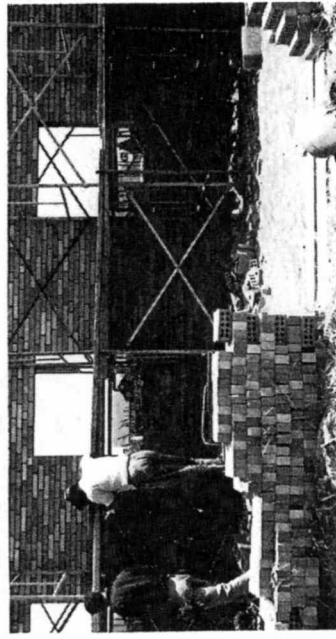

100 tons of steel rods have been placed into the slab, creating a strong unbreakable floor.

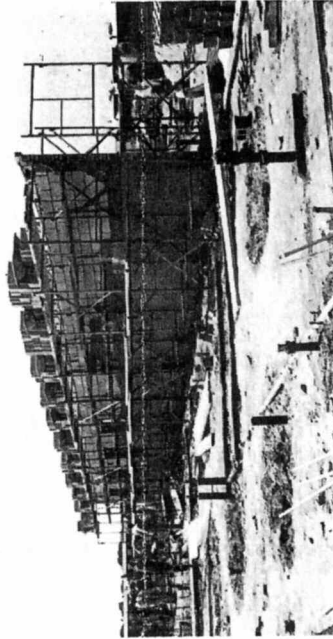

This is our second report of achievement. These reports give a visual picture of the building progress. The best picture can be obtained by visiting the site and seeing the accomplishments.

Amidst the mortar and steel we must never relinquish the nobility of our purpose. We stand at the threshold of a new era of service to our faith and customs, our people, and community. The devotion and labor of many people have brought us to the moment when dreams are translated to realities.

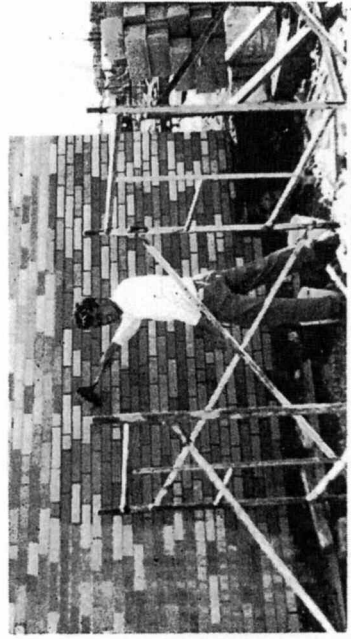

We have come home. The trek of centuries, dating from the Expulsion of Spain to this wonderful Land of Liberty consumed our strength but never weakened our spiritual ardor. The Sephardic Community is building a home commensurate with its stature as a people. It is building an artistic edifice of great beauty. It is erecting a House of God where the richness of the Sephardic minhag will be sung and adored. But most of all it is building a home and there is no place sweeter as home.

The brick walls are being erected. The courses are laid random, intermingling three shades of brown-gray, using 8 inch and 12 inch bricks.

The height of the outside wall is fifteen and a half feet, with large spans of glass curtain walls in certain areas.

To bring out the highlighting tones of the brick, the walls are scrubbed with acid, sanded and washed to a glowing finish.

Dear Abba and Imma,

Sabba and Savta, Sabba Rabba and Savta Rabbah,

We feel exceptionally blessed to be able to share with you, our family and the Sephardic Temple this amazing milestone. To reach the glorious age of 90 and for both of you to continue serving with love and distinction the congregation and community makes us all very proud.

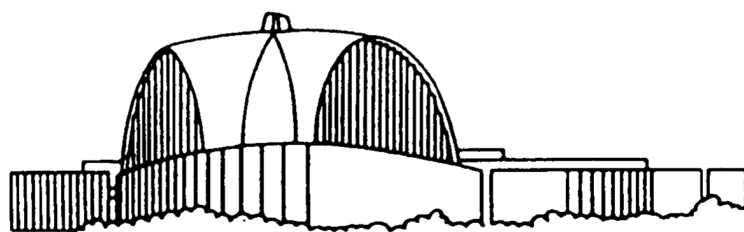

Over the years you have shared your vision and dreams with us.

Thirty four years ago we moved to Yerushalyim and we continue to feel a part of this family and community.

Your sixty five years of service within the Sephardic community is an unparalleled achievement. We are proud of you, our parents who have selflessly served this congregation their entire adult lives. The vivid memories of growing up within the United Sephardim of Brooklyn, the move to the Five Towns, the construction of our magnificent Sephardic Temple, our wedding, the birth and memories of naming our children in this synagogue fill us with joy and an everlasting connection with the entire community.

As children we are enormously proud of our parents and recognize that Imma and Abba partnered as a young couple with the members of their community. Like their marriage to each other, the bond with The Sephardic Temple is exclusive and for life.

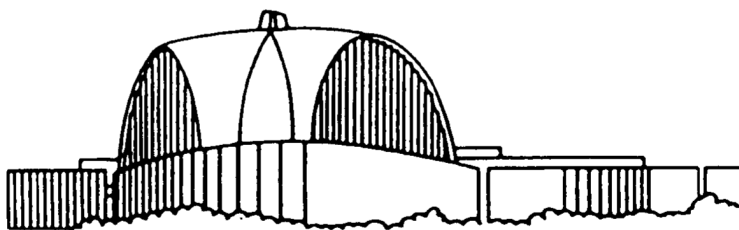

We asked our children to share their thoughts and to congratulate Imma/Abba, Savta/Sabba, Savta Rabbah/Sabba Rabbah on their life's work and to celebrate our father's 90th birthday. The following is the essence of what was written and said:

Devotion to family, the community and to the Jewish people,
Vigor and zest for everything around you,
Outstanding role models,
Eloquent,
Lucky to have you as grandparents,
Intelligent,
Ohavei Zion,
Superlative partnership,
Love of all learning,
Communal leaders,
Consummate hosts, welcoming family and friends into their homes and hearts.

Wishing our cherished parents, grandparents and great grandparents until 120!

Dearest Imma & Abba/ Sabba & Savta,

Your commitment and dedication to Jewish values have produced true quality of life for all those around you: the members of your Congregation, the larger Sephardic community, your friends and colleagues, and, most of all, your family. We look to you, our regal patriarch and matriarch, aspirationally, hoping to achieve personally, professionally, spiritually, and religiously what you seem to have so effortlessly created for yourselves. Your boundless love of humanity inspires in us goodness and calm, and you have bestowed upon us balance and perspective, which guides us every moment of our lives.

May you approach this majestic milestone with continued good health, surrounded by all of your blessings.

With all our love.

May God bless His people with peace. May they merit seeing children and grandchildren (and great-grandchildren!) immersed in Torah and Jewish living.

(From the Shabbat zemirot, table songs)

Dear Imma and Abba, Sabba and Savta,

Mazal tov on this wonderful simcha joyously combining Abba/Sabba's 90th birthday and the Sephardic Temple 55th Anniversary Year Testimonial.

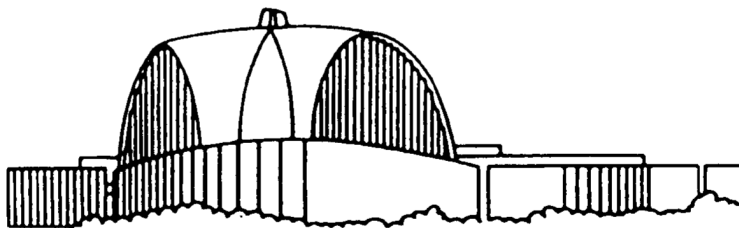

We are deeply grateful for the values you have instilled within us, including the importance of a large and connected family, Jewish tradition in all its diversity, and the indispensability of the State of Israel to Jewish destiny.

The Sephardic Temple and community have been inseparable from your journey. No venue for this double celebration could be more appropriate than this synagogue, which is so closely identified with your dedicated service to the Jewish people. This synagogue has given us and all your descendants immeasurable gifts, not least of which is our knowledge of Sephardic practice and culture.

May you continue to be blessed with health, vibrancy and the abundant nachas provided to you by your children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. May their tribe and heritage increase.

All our love,

We were raised in The Sephardic Temple world of "respect and admiration" for our parents. Actions speak louder than words and this community continues to leave indelible marks on us all. As a young child, and as an adult, I have come to love the people of this community because you love our parents and you love us. We have tremendous respect for the Sephardim because you represent many beautiful facets of our Jewish customs.

We have all grown older together, Baruch Hashem, and have solidified our bonds. We have shared the beautiful times and the challenges. And now we celebrate - we celebrate the graceful coming of age of our revered father, the union of our parents who have set an example par excellence and the glorified existence of this extraordinary community. Together we have grown from the little girl hiding under her father's gown on Shabbat morning to successful founders of and staunch contributors to Jewish life.

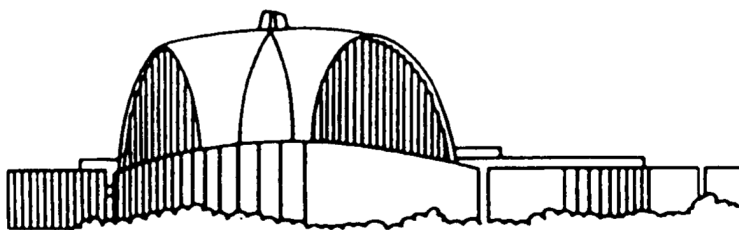

We are honored to be one with the Sephardic Temple community.

We are blessed that together we enjoy the arichat yamim, long healthy years, of our parents.

We pray that this unique relationship of Rabbi and Zipporah Marans, our Imma and Abba, with the Sephardic Temple community continues to flourish under their watchful eye.

We look forward to celebrating much health and success to all who have shown us so much love growing up.

With Love, Alan and Aliza

Dear Rabbi and Zipporah,

It has been our honor to have been members of the Sephardic Temple for the past 31 years with you as our Rabbi. The beautiful sanctuary and chapel, the decorum of the daily services, on Shabbat, on the Holidays, and the friendly congenial atmosphere and camaraderie of the congregation are all attributable to you and make our participation and attendance so very meaningful to us. We wish you and Zipporah many more years of good health for happy celebrations and joyous occasions with your family, friends and your congregation.
