Parashat KEE TETZE... contains Mitzvot which affect every aspect of life. Whether these laws are of an ethical, a religious or a socio-political nature, they are based on a similar set of values. Many of these laws promote concern for the dignity of all people. In dealing with a common laborer, a fugitive slave, or even a condemned criminal, the Torah begins with the premise that all are created in the image of G-d. Those most severely condemned by the Torah are people who nullify the dignity of a fellow human being.

ANNUAL YIZKOR MEMORIAL BOOK

“לְזַכֵּר עוֹלָם יִהְיֶה צְדִיק” (תהלים קיב:ו)

“...the righteous will be remembered forever”

(Psalms 112:6)

The Sephardic Temple is preparing the new Annual Yizkor Memorial Book containing the text of the Yizkor Memorial Service with special readings and meditations. In addition, the Yizkor Book will record the names of departed loved ones as remembered by family and friends.

The Yizkor Memorial Book will be distributed to our worshipers during the Yizkor Service on Yom Kippur as well as other Memorial Services conducted throughout the year.

Join this Yizkor Memorial Book project by dedicating the names of departed family and friends. Each name will be inscribed for a donation of $18 per name.

For more information, please contact the Temple office: (516-295-4644), admin@thesephardictemple.org
