SHEMINI ATZERET

שמיני עצרת

The concluding eighth day of Sukkot festival is not technically called Sukkot, but rather Shemini Atzeret. It is independent of Sukkot.

Although its purpose is to conclude the festival of Sukkot, it is commonly regarded as simply the final days of the Sukkot festival, Shemini Atzeret reflects none of the special observances related to Sukkot. The Sages described the reason for the eighth day in terms of the following parable, which is based on the other meaning of the term Atzeret:

G-d is like a King who invites all his children to a feast to last for just so many days; when the time comes for them to depart, he says to them: "My children, I have a request to make of you. Stay yet another day; your departure is difficult for me."

Like Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret is also referred to in the prayer book as zman simhateinu, the "season of our rejoicing."

September 29, 2020

Dear Temple Family,

I want to take a moment to say “thank you” to the Religious Committee for the wonderful job they did this High Holy Day season. I attended the Kal Nidre service this past Sunday evening (September 27) and I was overwhelmed by the smoothness of the seating process and how ticket check-in was performed. In addition, the Committee perfected the social distancing policies to be followed and it worked like magic.

The Kal Nidre service was amazing, beginning to end. The “voices from the seats” choral arrangements were the highlight of the program, bringing back memories of Kal Nidre evenings from the past.

Thank you, Fred Abraham, for bringing the memory of Rabbi Arnold B. Marans to the service with your rendition of “Anenu.”

Enhorabuenos y muchas gracias a: Rabbi Golden, Cantor Yonati, Alex Cohen, Howie Franco, Jeff Beja, David Laniado, Bob Gally and Lloyd Denenberg.

Thank you to the security team of Bob Gally, Frank Picciullo and Jerry Newman for keeping us safe and sound.

Thanks to the Temple office staff for their support: Ashley Rothbart, Dee Soll, and Robin Cohen. Thank you to Superintendent Angel De Leon and helpers Walter Acosta, Danny Rabanales, Jose Hercules, Portia McCoy, and Evelyn Burgos for all your help assisting the Temple members.

Looking forward to the upcoming holidays of Sukkot and Simcha Torah.

Cook time: 3 min, Prep time: 5 min, Serves 8

Directions

4. Remove from microwave and stir chocolate until it is silky and smooth.
5. Gently mix in sesame seeds, halva, pistachios and sea salt. (Optional: reserve a few spoonfuls on the side to top the bark).
6. Pour chocolate halva mixture into prepared parchment lined pan.
7. Top with reserved mix-ins (optional). Place in fridge for an hour to firm and set.
8. Break into pieces and store covered in fridge for up to a week.
