Parashat MISHPATIM... In order to create a stable and well-structured society in which people are able to live with a sense of security, it is necessary to have laws that govern our daily interactions. As a blueprint for the ideal society, the Torah outlined a series of civil and criminal laws in Parashat Mishpatim. The Hebrew word which begins our Torah portion, "Mishpatim", means both statutes and justice. The laws of the Torah were meant first and foremost to promote a just and moral society.

SEPHARDIC TEMPLE SHABBAT MORNING SERVICES

Shabbat Morning Services will be held in the Sanctuary with social distance restrictions by reservation only.

Registration to the Temple office for Shabbat must be received by Thursday.

TO OUR NEW MEMBERS

Randy & Larry Gelb

Purim

Jews throughout the ages have ushered in Purim with the reading of the Megillah in synagogue. The reading takes place on Thursday Eve, February 25 at 5:45 pm in the Main Sanctuary by RSVP to the Temple office. The other mitsvot of Purim are: sending food gifts to friends (mishloach manot) and giving charity to the less fortunate (matanot la'evyonim). Lastly, during the daytime on Purim one is obligated to eat a festive meal (se'udat mitzvah). Please join our Zoom minyan at 9:00 am on Friday, February 26 to hear the daytime Megillah reading (contact the Temple office for more information).
