Parashat EKEV... In his first three sermons to the children of Israel, Moses emphasizes that human beings are accountable for their actions. In Parashat Ekev in particular, Moses makes it clear that the people of Israel create their own heaven or hell in this world through the quality of their behavior.

ANNOUNCING THE RETURN OF MINYAN SERVICES TO THE SEPHARDIC TEMPLE
FOR FULLY VACCINATED ATTENDEES!

DAILY MINYAN:
MONDAY-FRIDAY 8:00 AM, SUNDAY 9:00 AM
(STARTING MONDAY, AUGUST 2)

FRIDAY EVENING SERVICES:
7:00 PM
(STARTING FRIDAY, JULY 30)

Do you know where you will be on
Monday, August 2nd at 8:00am?

The Sephardic Temple, of course!

We are very pleased to announce that the daily minyan is moving back to our Chapel!

The Minyanaires of our Temple showed a fierce loyalty to our daily minyan during Covid-19 and, via Zoom, held morning services Sunday through Friday for 15 months only missing a total of five days. This set a record for consecutive shahrit services successfully conducted by our congregation.

We look forward to everyone's assistance in ensuring that our beautiful Chapel services continue in a similarly strong fashion. Men and women are always welcome to attend our service. The camaraderie is genuine. Zoom is intended not as a substitute but a valid compliment to worship in the chapel, and if it is possible to install the technology, those who can't come in person will be able to join us virtually.

On Monday, August 2nd, please join us at 8:00am for the Shahrit service. A celebratory breakfast will be served afterwards. Please let the office know that you will attend.

We look forward to seeing you!
