Festive Purim Breakfast Following Services

Parashat VAYIKRA... This first Parashah of the Book of Leviticus describes several types of sacrifices that the Israelites brought to the Tabernacle. Though far removed from our contemporary reality, we should try to understand what they meant to our ancient ancestors. Among the offerings were several sacrifices that were brought by individuals to repair their relationship with G-d after incidents of breakdown. "...And it will be forgiven him for anything of all that he has done wherein to incur guilt." (Lev. 5:26) Each sin offering was accompanied by a personal admission of guilt and contrition for previous actions.

Purim

Jews throughout the ages have ushered in Purim with the reading of the Megillah in synagogue. Services on Saturday Eve, March 23 begin at 8:15 pm in the Main Sanctuary. The other mitzvot of Purim are: sending food gifts to friends (mishloah manot) and giving charity to the less fortunate (matanot la'evyonim). During the daytime on Purim one is obligated to eat a festive meal (se'udat mitzvah). You might consider attending Minyan at 9:00 am on Sunday, March 24 to hear the daytime Megillah reading and enjoy the festive breakfast immediately after the service.
