Parashat BESHALAH... The story of the Exodus reaches its climax with the crossing of Reed Sea (Yam Soof). When the children of Israel discover that they are caught between the advancing Egyptian army and the perilous sea, they turn on Moses half in anger, half in fear. Moses is a capable and strong leader and is able to calm the nation until G-d responds by splitting the sea. The Israelites cross the dry seabed to their freedom.

Gathering

A Review by Mel Matsil and Nathan Grama

'Luncheon Fun in Boca'

Last Wednesday, January 16, Rabbi and Rabbanit Shira Golden arranged a wonderful luncheon for the South Florida contingent of the Sephardic Temple of Cedarhurst. It was held at the Century Grill in Boca Raton. The restaurant was opened just for our group and we sat at a large L-shaped table. Our own Ashley Rothbart helped select an excellent menu of tasty Kosher dishes chosen from the restaurant's main menu.

Rabbi Golden spoke appropriate words as we all sat down together. He always knows what to say to help us appreciate our blessings.

For the folks who have been in Florida, it was a great chance to catch up with old friends, many of whom had not seen in a long while. A few of the Zoom minyanaires were also present.

The crowd was friendly and we circulated the room between ordering and eating our delicious meals. We all enjoyed seeing Rabbanit Zipporah Marans who is spending some time in Boca this winter, as well as this year's Journal Testimonial Honoree Marion Crespi.

We had such a good time that we look forward to another occasion like this in the future!
