Parashat PEKUDE... The final chapters of Exodus contain the last details in the description of Israel's Tabernacle. Besides giving an accounting of the necessary materials for the building of the sanctuary, this Parashah also describes the location of all the furnishings within the Tent of Meeting.
When everything had been placed in its proper location,
the priests could then offer sacrifices on behalf of the people of Israel.

In honor of Yom HaShoah, join us for a never-before-seen musical performance in memory of two Holocaust victims; one who survived; and one who was murdered.

New Manhattan Sinfonietta brings together soulful premieres. This meaningful concert includes “Hymns from Auschwitz” featuring hazans and a piano orchestral piece by Elcil Gürel Göçtü, a young student composer who worked with Renan Koen on her March of the Music initiative. The concert also includes Piano Concerto No. 24 in C Minor, K. 491 by W.A. Mozart, which Renan Koen will perform in memoriam of Viktor Ullmann. The performance will conclude with the debut of the Auschwitz Symphonic Poem written by Holocaust survivor Michel Assael. This poem was locked away and ultimately found by Dr. Joe Halio through his passionate research, and Renan Koen assisted in bringing this masterpiece to life.

W.A.MOZART (1756-1791) Piano Concerto No. 24 in C Minor, K. 491

MICHEL ASSAEL (1918-2006) Auschwitz Symphonic Poém

We’re proud to honor Martin Elias, a steadfast supporter of Holocaust and tolerance education. We thank Martin for his generosity and support in making this concert a reality.

Please direct all donations related to this event to the Holocaust Memorial and Tolerance Center of Nassau County. You can also mail a check to HMTC at 100 Crescent Beach Road, Glen Cove, NY 11542.

Tickets to this event range from $27 to $180 per ticket.
