Parashat SHEMOT... Reading the opening verses of Exodus, one quickly realizes that while the Bible records historical events, it is not what we moderns understand as history. The years that are described contain glaring gaps. While we are told much about Moses' career, we learn little about his youth or his middle years. The Book of Exodus records Israel's dramatic engagement with G-d rather than a synopsis of daily events.

Shabbat Across America

Friday Evening, March 1, 2024

Please join us for a full Shabbat dinner by Genadeen Caterers

Candle Lighting & Services.....5:29 PM

On Friday evening, March 1, the Sephardic Temple will be one of hundreds of synagogues across the continent that will celebrate a traditional, joyous communal Shabbat, with services and a festive meal.

Led by Rabbi Golden and Cantor Yonati, Shabbat Across America at the Sephardic Temple is an occasion to reintroduce the community to a practice that unifies the Jewish people. Everyone is invited... singles, couples and families. Bring you neighbors, your friends, and your whole family – and let's celebrate Shabbat!

*We extend our thanks and deepest appreciation to
The Ike, Molly and Steven Elias Foundation for their gracious subvention.*
