Parashat BEHA'ALOTEKHA... is a long parshah with many different themes. It is divided into two separate sections by the two inverted "nuns" which precede and follow Chapter 10, Verses 35-36. Quite suddenly the idyllic existence which is described in the first ten chapters of Bemidbar give way to dissension, complaint, and rebellion against G-d. Despite the fact that the Israelites lived in an environment where all their needs were supplied, they allowed their pettiness and greed to destroy the very comforts they had gained.
