Parashat MIKETZ... Many commentators have pointed out that G-d does not speak directly to Joseph or appear to him in his dreams as He did to his forefathers. Yet, the strange turn of events in his life is sufficient cause to believe that G-d often works in mysterious - if not hidden - ways. While G-d is silent in the closing chapters of this book, Joseph's faith remains strong. How often do we see G-d's presence in the course of our lives?

*Si al Dino lo vemos,
con sensya lo alcansamos*

If we don't see G-d, we can reach him

Proudly Present

New York Ladino Day 2021: Adelantre / Onward!

2:00 PM EST on Sunday, 10 January 2021

You'll hear Ruth Azaria, actor Hank Azaria's mother, speak about growing-up with Ladino; Rabbi Nissim Elneché on expressions we love; Ladino students on learning the language; renowned writer Myriam Moscona; the premiere of a contemporary short play; and celebrated singer Daphna Mor.

Ladino is a bridge to many cultures. It is a variety of Spanish that has absorbed words from Hebrew, Turkish, Arabic, French, Greek, and Portuguese. The mother tongue of Jews in the Ottoman Empire for 500 years, Ladino became the home language of Sephardim worldwide. While the number of Ladino speakers has sharply declined, distinguished Ladino Day programs like ours celebrate and preserve a vibrant language and heritage. These programs are, as Aviya Kushner wrote in the Forward last January, "Why Ladino Will Rise Again."

Since 2013, International Ladino Day programs have been held around the world to honor the Ladino language, also known as Judeo-Spanish. January 10th marks New York's 4th Annual Ladino Day created by Drs. Jane Mushabac and Bryan Kirschen for the American Sephardi Federation.
