Parashat TZAV... The first half of Parashat Tzav describes many of the sacrifices that Israel offered in the Tabernacle. While we no longer offer sacrifices, the religious and moral values that underlie these offerings are still an essential part of Judaism. The sacrifices were a concrete expression of one's gratitude to G-d, and a formal act of submission to the King of Kings. In the second half of the Parashah, the Torah describes the initiation ceremony for the priesthood.

Purim

Jews throughout the ages have ushered in Purim with the reading of the Megillah in synagogue. Services on Wednesday Eve, March 16 begin at 6:30 pm in the Main Sanctuary. The other mitzvot of Purim are: sending food gifts to friends (mishloach manot) and giving charity to the less fortunate (matanot la'evyonim). During the daytime on Purim one is obligated to eat a festive meal (se'udat mitzvah). You might consider attending Minyan at 8:00 am on Thursday, March 17 to hear the daytime Megillah reading and enjoy the festive breakfast immediately after the service.

Journal Ads
