Parashat TZAV... The first half of Parashat Tzav describes many of the sacrifices that Israel offered in the Tabernacle. For the ancients, sacrifices were a concrete expression of gratitude to G-d, and a formal act of submission to the King of Kings. In the second half of the Parashah, the Torah describes the initiation ceremony for the priesthood.

BOOK and AUTHOR

Tuesday, April 2 • 11 am in Cedarhurst, NY

at the Sephardic Temple

We are proud to present Book Talk with acclaimed author

A.J. Sidransky

on his novel:

Incident at San Miguel

This historical novel tells the story of the Cohan family who fled from Poland to Cuba to escape poverty and antisemitism. They built a successful life—eldest son, Aaron, is a lawyer working under Batista's regime, while younger son, Moises, is an accountant and sympathizer of Castro's rebels. Moises helps rescue a rebel leader from house arrest and goes into hiding, Aaron is faced with a dilemma: should he help his brother or leave him to the authorities? As the revolution intensifies, the Cohan family must deal with the consequences of their choices and the changes in their country. The book also explores the history and culture of Cuba's Jewish community. Incident at San Miguel is a captivating and moving novel that portrays how politics and religion can deeply affect family bonds and personal identity.

We will be joined by the author, as well as Miriam Bradman Abrahams, daughter of the family on which the novel is based.

Lunch will be served!

Registration Plus Book: $50 (Includes a signed copy of the Book)

Everyone must RSVP by 3/25 - No Walk-Ins

According to Hadassah policy, advance registration and a signed participant release are required for all in person events.
